More About Dianna Jacobsen:

Dianna Jacobsen comes from a background of wheat/sheep farming in the southern Riverina and now lives with her husband and two sons on their cattle property in beautiful North-East Victoria. She operates SHINE at Business to meet the growing, unmet need for pro-active, holistic business training & advice and strategic & succession planning.

More About Deanne Sykes:

A third-generation farmer, Deanne has over 30 years of experience in farm and business management, marketing, and client engagement, operating Mawarra Genetics – an international Hereford & Angus cattle stud - with her husband. As a strong advocate of personal development, she established Meraki in 2022, a mentoring program that offers guidance and empowers individuals and families in rural and regional communities.
